

MANDATE

As provided for in Presidential Decree No. 78, (December 1972), as amended by P. D. No. 1149, (June 1977), the PAGASA is mandated –

“To provide protection against natural calamities and utilize scientific knowledge as an effective instrument to insure the safety, well-being and economic security of all the people, and for the promotion of national progress.”

MISSION

Protecting lives, livelihoods and properties through timely, accurate and reliable weather-related information and services

VISION

Center of excellence for weather-related information and services

FUNCTIONS

- Maintain a nationwide network, pertaining to observation and forecasting of weather and flood and other climatological Conditions affecting the national safety, welfare and economy;
- Undertake activities relative to observation, collection, assessment and processing of atmospheric and allied data for the benefit of agriculture, commerce and industry;
- Engages in studies of atmospheric, geophysical and astronomical phenomena essential to the safety and welfare of the people;
- Undertake researches on the structure, development and motion of typhoons and formulate measures for their moderation; and,
- Maintain active linkages with scientific organizations here and abroad and promote exchange of scientific information and cooperation among personnel engaged in atmospheric, geophysical, astronomical and space studies.