WEATHER ADVISORY NO. 80 FINAL

For: Shear Line

Issued at: 5:00 PM, 04 January 2025

The Shear Line is now less likely to bring significant heavy rainfall over the country. However, it will continue to bring scattered rains and thunderstorms over Ilocos Region, Cordillera Administrative Region, Central Luzon, mainland Cagayan, Isabela, Nueva Vizcaya, and Quirino in the next 24 hours. PAGASA Regional Services Divisions will continue to issue local thunderstorm advisories and heavy rainfall warnings as needed. With this development, this is the final advisory.
